On European Front Germany is Pummelled from Air and Ground

By International News Service

The sleepy little town of Tacloban on Leyte Island today became the temporary seat of government in the Philippines.

In a dramatic ceremony before a throng of Filipinos, Gen. Douglas MacArthur declared that his forces had come as "liberators for the entire archipelago." While he read the proclamation of new freedom, his troops continued to expand their positions against Japanese defenders who apparently have elected to retreat.

Gen. MacArthur's communique said the enemy seemingly is withdrawing westward on Leyte after "temporary defeat."

Airfields on the island, near Dulag and Tacloban, already are being prepared for use by American planes, the communique revealed, indicating that Leyte will become the springboard for further swift blows against Japan's crumbling walls of defense.

While ground troops continued their advance, the rumble of American artillery could be heard throughout the night. Naval guns off shore also joined in the barrage. The ships, just before dawn, were

CAPTURE IMPORTANT CITY ON LEYTE

Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines—Capture of the important road junction city of Palo on embattled Leyte Island in the Philippines was officially announced today.

Palo, a city of 25,000 people, and second in size and importance only to previously captured Tacloban several miles northward, was seized by the 24th Army Infantry Division against only light Japanese opposition.

Palo lies two and one half miles inland from Leyte's east coast where the 24th infantry landed last Friday and is in the southern sector of the northern half of the American sphere of control.

The city fell in a matter of a few hours after the hard-charging Americans launched their initial attack on its outer defenses.

Less than a battalion of American troops accomplished initial occupation of the strategic junction.

The Americans now hold three major population centers on Leyte, Tacloban and Dulag, north and south respectively, of Palo, fell to the Americans with little opposition. Seizure of Palo resulted in the consolidation of the American beachheads in the northern and eastern sectors of Leyte and left no doubt that United States forces of liberation have a permanent foothold in the Philippines.

Palo has roads leading in all directions from the city and should help to solve the problem of keeping supplies within reach of rapidly advancing American forward units.

WESTERN FRONT OPERATIONS NOT MAJOR OFFENSIVE, SAYS EISENHOWER

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force—Allied operations on the western front do not yet represent anything in the nature of a co-ordinated major offensive, a spokesman for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today. Present operations involve "right and left hooks" to keep the Germans off balance but no real breakthrough of the Siegfried line will have been achieved until Allied troops are over the Rhine, the spokesman said. He warned of slow progress between Aachen and Cologne due to natural barriers.

WAR FUND DRIVE IS NOW UNDERWAY HERE

Workers Eagerly Seek To Raise Quota of $48,000 Set For District

THE NEED IS URGENT

The drive being conducted in the Bristol Area for funds is now underway and within the next few days it is expected that the efforts to raise the quota of $48,000 will increase.

The need for finances by the National War Fund is greater than ever this year. More young Americans are in the services. More are abroad. These men and women need more than food and a place to sleep to enable them to withstand the hardship, the loneliness, and the horrors of war.

The things which they receive through the U.S.O., United Seamen's Service, and War Prisoners' Aid are things which help sustain them.

Things which let them know that the people of this country are in there with them. Things which tell them that they do not fight alone.

The need for aid among our Allies is pressing. . . . acute. This is going to be a fatal year for thousands who have fought for us. . . . if we do not help them. We can't let them down now.

In addition, the need here at home in our own communities has been increased by war. This year, the funds collected must do more than ever.

Every possible bit of weight that can be put behind the campaign this year must be put behind it. People must be made aware of the urgency of the need by every possible device. Every advertising message that is seen—that is heard—will lend impetus to the campaign.

"CLEAR EVERYTHING WITH SIDNEY"

PART EIGHT
ENDS AND MEANS
(Doylestown Intelligencer)

As has been pointed out, New Dealers prefer to insist that the Hillman PAC program is a voluntary humanitarian and educational project, completely in harmony with all laws.

When that position becomes untenable in the face of the fact that the Federal Statutes obviously intended to limit the amount, methods of raising, and use of campaign funds, the New Dealers may then attempt to hold that Hillman is circumventing the law by use of loopholes.

Ousted from this second line by the embarrassment of the comparison of what is being done with what is prohibited, these New Deal spokesmen wage a last-ditch defense from a still further position.

This consists essentially of the contention that, whether the PAC activities are legal or not, the end justifies the means.

It is not to be expected that this philosophy will be set forth publicly and officially by Democratic campaigners.

Expressing the idea would be at once confession that the program actually is illegal, also a virtual admission that various New Dealers, President Roosevelt, the big-city political bosses and Sidney Hillman have joined hands in what is virtually a political conspiracy to by-pass the election laws.

But the attempt is being made to get the idea across by implication instead of direct words.

The impression is conveyed by over-emphasis on three points: first, the alleged "voluntary" nature of PAC contributions; second, the small amount of the individual contributions; and third, alleged parallels between the PAC pressure tactics and methods attributed to Republicans in the past.

This of course involves contradictions and the disregard of known facts.

Turning again to the Philadelphia Record, which is one of the most ardent protagonists of Hillman, that newspaper said editorially on October 2:

"When Republican leaders condemn the Political Action Committee for soliciting $1 from union members for political purposes they are condemning the PAC for adopting exactly the same method of collecting political funds which Republicans have used for years."

Even if this statement were literally true, it does not place in a happy light President Roosevelt, whom it describes as condoning and taking advantage of political practices he has roundly condemned in the past.

But the various elements of the statement are incorrect.

First, Republican leaders have not, as the Record states, condemned PAC "for soliciting $1 each from union members." On the contrary, it is not the "soliciting" but the blackjacking of contributions—the contemplated creation by pressure methods of a gigantic slush fund expressly prohibited by Federal statute—that the Republicans are criticizing. Many Democrats join in this condemnation.

Second, it is preposterously erroneous to state that the PAC is "adopting exactly the same method" as the Republican Party is accused of having used in the past.

Even the wildest of New Deal critics do not claim that the Republican Party ever contemplated blackjacking millions of dollars from the rank and file members

BENSALEM P. T. A. MEETS IN INTERESTING SESSION

Purchase of A Recreation Field Is Urged Upon The Members

PROGRAM FEATURES

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Oct. 23—Seventy-five Bensalem Parent-Teacher Association members enjoyed an interesting evening on Thursday.

John Kidd, of this year's senior class, who led the group in singing was named by Philip G. Mack, president, or official song leader for the ensuing year.

Results of the membership drive and contest by the pupils of Bensalem were definitely good. Out of a total enrollment of 217, Edward Cragg solicited 52 members, thus winning the prize which Mr. Mack had offered. More new members are desired, 300 being the goal.

Miss Green's class won the monthly award for parent attendance.

C. Burnley White reported that the Youth Center at King Hall, Andalusia, which was inaugurated by Cornwells P. T. A. last year is now self-supporting. About 250 young people are enjoying the privileges.

Mrs. Roscoe Perkins and delegates, Mrs. Edwin M. Lathrop and Mrs. John Diamond, gave enthusiastic reports of the convention of the Parents and Teachers' Congress recently held in Philadelphia. Attention was called to the post-war needs of parent, teacher and child, not only mentally but physically. The necessity of a larger enrollment in colleges was pointed out in view of the anticipated shortage of teachers. In 1932, 10,000 teachers graduated from the colleges in Pennsylvania. In 1943, there were only 3,700. There will be less this year.

Organization of mothers of pre-school age children was advised. They can help and be helped in P. T. A. work. It was pointed out that Pennsylvania ranks 36th of the 48 states in education.

C. Burnley White made a plea for something to be done about the purchase of the present recreation field of the school. He urged the P. T. A. to anticipate what will happen in the post-war set up, if this ground is bought for a building project. Hope was expressed that co-operation of the school board will be forthcoming.

The closing part of the evenings program food for thought. The Rev. Ronald Arnsley Wiley, of the Church of the Redeemer, Andalusia, brought home to the audience, how in most cases, education has become an assessment instead of an investment. "It is necessary for us to begin individually in our own back yard to rectify the mistakes that have been made. Don't try to get all you can get for the least effort, but learn to live with people and give of yourself, thus building a better world, not forgetting the need of spiritual development."

On Nov. 15th, there will be "open house" at the school from one to five p. m. Regular school hours will be observed so that parents may see their children in their regular routine. After 3:15 teachers will be glad to discuss problems with parents. All visitors are requested to register in their child's home room. There will be no evening P. T. A. meeting in November.

After adjournment, a treat by Mr. Mack was served in the cafeteria.

The Rev. W. E. Preston Haas, pastor of the church, officiated; and the bride's sister and a brother of the groom, Mr. Robert McCay, were attendants.

The couple then left for Allentown to pay a visit at the home of relatives of the bride.

WHAT OUR BOYS ARE DOING TO WIN THE WAR

A SIXTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND UNIT, France, Oct. 23—Private First Class Albert Ntja, husband of Mary Nepa, 335 Lincoln avenue, Bristol, Pa., is now advancing through France with a Ninth Air Force Service Command unit serving the fighters and bombers of the Ninth Air Force which are blasting a path toward Germany for our victorious armies.

By now he has had a wonderful opportunity to see practically all of France from the hedgerows of Normandy to the dusty battlefields of the last war. Riding in speeding trucks over bumpy roads pitted with shell holes, he has been able to feel the joy of the French people who line the roads all day just to flash the V-sign to the Allied armies rushing supplies up to the vanishing front.

Hundreds of pretty girls have thrown kisses at him as much as to say, "Thank God you are here. Vive L'Amerique!" Little French children have run up to him and held his hand trying to communicate in some way their great joy that the Americans have come—with their guns and liberation.

He has probably taken one little taste of Calvados, and sworn off for life. Undoubtedly he's been wanting to send some French perfume back to the folks at home, but the towns are off-limits and purchases of most articles are temporarily taboo. He regrets that he didn't study French at school, but now can parlez-vous enough to get his laundry, buy a fresh egg, ask the price and say "thank you." He joins with thousands of other American G. I.'s in the hope that never again will beautiful France become the battleground of a world at war.

Pfc. Nepa entered service in September, 1942.

FORMOSA'S IMPORTANCE

The blazing American attacks which leveled Formosa are steps in the campaign to win back the Philippines. These smashing blows brought the war very close to Japan, for the island is perhaps the most important of all Japanese bases.

It is reported in some sources that Formosa was even more heavily fortified than the Japanese home islands. It was from the bases in Formosa that the Japs launched their attack on the Philippines.

The pounding of Formosa has neutralized the major Japanese supply base and destroyed much Jap shipping and many airplanes. With Formosa lost to the enemy as an effective supply base, invasion of the Philippines was made much easier.

Each attack in this vital area—on Formosa, on Luzon, or anywhere else in the area of the Philippines—means that the day is that much closer when General MacArthur's troops will complete their occupation of the Philippines.

DESTROYING WEALTH

In considering the conscienceless qualities of the Japs and Germans in pursuing methods of destruction in wartime, it is a salutary practice to consider the presence of a spirit of destructiveness in the land of the free in peacetime as well as war time.

G. H. Collingwood, forester of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association, says that incendiaryism is the principal cause of forest fires in the United States, although carelessness of smokers and campers runs a close second.

Incendiaryism has increased 7 per cent since 1939, he says. In some areas forests have been burned out deliberately to provide pasture land or because of the luxuriant berry growth which follows. Frequently, he says, they have been ignited with the intention of burning out a limited area, but the fires spread. Other causes of incendiaryism listed are spite, sabotage and "the fun of watching fires burn."

The effect of these causes of fire is appalling when it is considered that fire destroys more trees a year than the national planting program and natural reproduction can replace. Fires, Mr. Collingwood says, may change the character of the soil so the ground no longer can support the type of tree growth it originally would produce.

Each year, forest fires destroy 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 acres of timberland. The annual harvest of lumber is approximately 12,000,000,000 cubic feet, and each year an additional 2,000,000,000 cubic feet are destroyed by fire and other agencies—one-sixth of the total yearly harvest.

It is strange that Americans either deliberately or carelessly should engage in such wholesale destruction of the national wealth. A stepped-up educational program to impress upon everyone the damaging effects of fire is seriously needed.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

The Trenton authorities now use the ball and chain for tramps and set them at work on the streets.

A horse went through a broken plank in the hollow bridge last Friday. The Otter creek bridge is also in poor condition. The Turnpike Company should see that their property is in safe condition.

A number of farmers near Bristol are subject to the annoyance of persons entering upon their premises and cutting trees for the holidays without permission being granted. Last year many cedars and pines were carried off, and this year several farmers have determined to put a stop, if possible, to the practice as far as their own property is concerned.

Complaints are made that the freight trains, notwithstanding the rules of the company and the sign boards erected at each street, continue to block up the crossings so that pedestrians are compelled to wait from 10 to 20 minutes. If the railroad company is powerless to enforce obedience to their own rules, council might give them a little auxiliary aid.

WHEN the curtain of censorship lifts—many names of SUN SHIP tankers will be on the war roll of honor. Then the story can be told completely. The role the tankers played for victory will thrill a grateful people.

Here is one story of a gallant tanker and the part she played in readying the invasion of Normandy... the invasion of Marseille... the liberation of Paris. Censorship makes her nameless—but this ship's name will go down in History.

This tanker set an unsurpassed fuel-running record. In the 262 days preceding the liberation of Paris she made eight round trips, totalling 56,000 miles, from Marcus Hook to her war port in England. Powered by SUN Diesel Doxford engines—she travelled fast. She needed no convoy. She carried a total of 44,202,208 gallons of high-octane gasoline and Navy fuel oil—the gasoline and oil that powered the planes... landing barges... ships

... tanks... jeeps... mobile guns and equipment that struck with force—with fury—on D-Day, June 6, 1944—and on to the spectacular victories in France that startled the world. Each round trip took but 32 3/4 days instead of the usual 49 days. She loaded—crossed—unloaded—returned—in this 32 3/4-day round-trip record of carrying fuel for the fight.

This ship symbolizes the staunchly-built, staunch-hearted all-welded tankers that SUN SHIP has designed and launched for our war effort. These tankers are true... sleek... souled with quality. Men who know ships take off their hats in sincere tribute as each tanker receives her God-speed and slides down the ways at SUN SHIP in Chester. These all-welded tankers have done much to bring victory nearer. These tankers and their crews gallantly are carving their niche in History. They will continue to serve greatly in time of peace.

Ceramics' Is Subject of Miss Weder At Perkasio

PERKASIE, Oct. 23—Perkasio women's club held its first meeting, the season on Thursday in Fraternity Temple. The program was presented by Miss Julia Weder, who spoke on "Ceramics."

Miss Weder, who for the past four years has made this her hobby, speaking before approximately 65 women, said the Indians were the first to make pottery in this country, although the Chinese are known to have made fine glazed pieces centuries before.

The guest speaker described the operation of the potter's wheel and the method of applying the fine glazes. Ceramic objects illustrating Miss Weder's talk were on display. She also showed some pieces of sculpture she had made. Sculpturing, she told the women, is her specialty, but at present she is engaged in making ceramic jewelry. She gave a demonstration of the steps taken in the making of a ceramic pin in the form of a rose. Miss Weder has her own electric kiln. Objects are left in the kiln for eight hours until they reach a temperature of 1900 degrees. Glazed pieces, it was explained, require no firings.

The business session was in charge of the new president, Mrs. Clyde T. Moyer, Sellersville, and during the afternoon several piano solos were rendered by John Meserve, a Sell-Park High School student.

Our Father, we thank Thee for another day. We are grateful for the challenges which come to us in our daily living. Challenges which require the utmost of Christian courage and devotion. Help us we pray Thee to seize our opportunities for service with eagerness that Thy Will might be done through us. O Lord, help us to develop sympathetic hearts and understanding minds that no one will pass by us with broken heart or twisted life without having received encouragement from us. Teach us O God, the secret of a life which is centered upon Thee that we might be steady and sure in days of confusion. Help us to see the basis for victorious living as it is revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord. Our prayer we ask O Lord in the Spirit of Christ. Amen.

BRISTOL HIGH ELEV EN WINS FOURTH STRAIGHT GRIDIR ON VICTORY WHEN BENSALEM I S DEFEATED IN RAIN

Bristol High won its fourth straight gridiron victory Saturday afternoon, defeating Bensalem High, 19-0, on a rain-soaked Bristol field. The game was played despite the fact that it was raining from start to finish.

The weather made the handling of the pigskin very difficult, there being eight fumbles in the game. Bristol had three fumbles and recovered them all while Bensalem fumbled five times and recovered none. The passing attack of both teams was hampered because of the difficulty in the throwing of the ball.

But the mud-coated field did not stop the Bunnies from crossing the Bensalem goal-line on three occasions and did not prevent Joe McDewitt from adding another point after touchdown to his record. The Stackhouse boys had eight first downs to their credit while Bensalem had but one and that was given to them because of a penalty inflicted against Bristol.

Most of the playing during the afternoon took place in the Bensalem territory. The Owls were constantly kicking out of danger and Trapp got off some nice boots but the Bunnies unleashed their offensive attack in the first and third quarters to cop the verdict.

The Stackhouse-coached boys scored their initial six-pointer in the first period. After the kick-off, Bensalem failed to gain and so Trapp booted to the Bristol 40. Oriola made a first down to carry the ball to the visitors' 35. Keyes lateralled to Favososo for a touchdown but the play was recalled, the officials claiming that Keyes was down. Bristol then drove through the Owls' line for a first down on the 24. McDewitt whipped a pass to Fiorelli who behind the fine block of Keyes and Centenze had some difficulty in scoring the touchdown. McDewitt place-kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0.

It wasn't until the fourth period that the Bunnies were able to score again. This time it was Joe McDewitt who broke loose on an off-tackle play and ran 50 yards to score. He missed the extra point try.

Shortly after this, the Bristol line pushed over another score. On the kick-off, Keyes kicked into the end zone and the ball was brought out to the 20. Trapp attempted to kick but the ball was partially blocked and recovered by Bristol on the 25. On the first play, Keyes lateralled to Leo Fiorelli who crossed the goal-line behind wonderful interference to make the final score 19-0.

The Owl made a brilliant show in the latter half of the first and the beginning of the second quarter. Their line held up wonderfully to prevent a Bristol score. It started after Fiorelli's touchdown. An exchange of punts took place with Oriola running back one for 25 yards, to his own 46. On two plays, Bristol had a first down and the Bunnies followed this with two consecutive first downs to carry the pigskin to the Bensalem 5 as the quarter ended.

A pass, McDewitt to Oriola, placed the ball on the 1-yard line and Bristol lost the ball on downs. Trapp kicking out to the 30. On the first play, a pass was intercepted by Hansen but the Owls also tried a pass which was intercepted by Favososo for Bristol. By pounding the line, Bristol carried the ball to the Bensalem 10 and here again the invaders held for downs.

Trapp attempted to kick out of danger but the ball was blocked and Keyes grabbed it on the one-yard line. But in four tries, Bristol could not make the necessary yard for a scored and Bensalem kicked out to its twenty. Bristol made a first down on the Bensalem five but the Owls were determined and again held for downs.

of any organization, union or otherwise; or that it ever entrusted the spending of a gigantic slush-fund on its behalf to an independent and rival political organization; or that it ever turned over the reins of authority and the handling of its funds to a single man not even actively a member of the Party.

Use of such specious reasoning in trying to justify a program that seriously endangers the integrity of the White House, the freedom of our elections, and the future of the two-party system, is merely further proof of the depths to which the New Deal has sunk in the mire of corrupt politics.

It is confirmation of the Republican contention that the idealists of the New Deal have sold out to the big-city bosses in a deal whereby a protégé of the ill-fated Prendergast political machine was nominated for Vice-President.

It is a philosophy which puts the finishing touches on the picture of the Democratic Party's once proud standards trailing in the dust—a picture deftly outlined recently by Democratic Chairman Hannegan when he protested that the Democratic Party has been giving its job to "statesmen" rather than party workers, and that the Hatch Act was hampering him in obtaining contributions. (Tomorrow: "Caution—Danger Ahead")

It was the first Lower Bucks County League game this season and the Bunnies as the result are now resting in first place.

Several Japanese planes did come over, but no targets were visible and their bombs did no damage. Japanese targets, however, were blasted again from the air with what has become almost clock-like regularity. Smashing at the enemy flanking MacArthur's ground troops.

heavy bombers unloaded 94 tons of explosives on buildings and other installations in Mindanao, Gageyan, a vital communications center in the northern part of the island, was a principal target.

Medium bombers and fighters also hit Mindanao, damaged two small Japanese vessels off Sarangani islands, hit Visayan islands in the central Philippines and there sank at least three small freighters.

Night reconnaissance planes continued their attacks on Balikpapan in Borneo and other widespread targets.

In Europe, Germany also was pummeled from the air and on the ground.

The American Third and Seventh armies spearheaded into Nazi defenses in what appeared to be a pincer development north and south of the Parroy Forest.

Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army, after several days of inactivity, rumbled along the north side of the Rhine-Marne canal, 18 miles east of Nancy, capturing the town of Coincourt.

Southward, Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh Army force struck through the Parroy Forest in the vicinity of Emmerwill.

The Third and Seventh Army troops apparently were moving in co-ordination in a sweep that seemed headed for Strasbourg on the Rhine.

The First Army, with shell-shattered Aachen in its grasp, spearheaded four miles northward to the town of Wupselen where street fighting was reported in progress. Stragglers of the surrendered Nazi garrison at Aachen were still being rounded up, however.

Northward on the Western Front, the British Second Army joined Canadians in a new smash to free the water route to Antwerp, prize inland port of Western Europe. Advances marked developments on the northern sector.

Russian forces, striking Germany from the East, were reported 12 miles inside the Reich borders of East Prussia. The German radio admitted the Red forces have set a pincers to seize the vital communications center of Insterburg and that other Soviet units have reached the Niemen River, facing the railway center at Tilsit.

The Russian troops, meanwhile, continued their autumn offensive with new vigor elsewhere, smashing through Northern Finland to the Norwegian border along a 54-mile front. Late Moscow dispatches placed the Reds within three miles of Kirkenes, a Nazi air and submarine base on the lease-lend route to the Arctic.

Allied fliers also hurled a record punch at Germany, with more than 2,000 American and British planes raiding Hamm, Munster, Hanover and Brunswick with not a single bomber being lost.

MacARTHUR READS PROCLAMATION OF NEW FREEDOM FOR PHILIPPINES AS HOLDINGS ON LEYTE ISLAND EXPAND; AIRFIELDS ALREADY BEING PREPARED FOR U. S. PLANES

To Become Springboard For Further Swift Blows Against 'Japs'

BOMB MANY CENTERS

On European Front Germany is Pummelled from Air and Ground

By International News Service

The sleepy little town of Tacloban on Leyte Island today became the temporary seat of government in the Philippines.

In a dramatic ceremony before a throng of Filipinos, Gen. Douglas MacArthur declared that his forces had come as "liberators for the entire archipelago." While he read the proclamation of new freedom, his troops continued to expand their positions against Japanese defenders who apparently have elected to retreat.

Gen. MacArthur's communique said the enemy seemingly is withdrawing westward on Leyte after "temporary defeat."

Airfields on the island, near Dulag and Tacloban, already are being prepared for use by American planes, the communique revealed, indicating that Leyte will become the springboard for further swift blows against Japan's crumbling walls of defense.

While ground troops continued their advance, the rumble of American artillery could be heard throughout the night. Naval guns off shore also joined in the barrage. The ships, just before dawn, were

CAPTURE IMPORTANT CITY ON LEYTE

Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines—Capture of the important road junction city of Palo on embattled Leyte Island in the Philippines was officially announced today.

Palo, a city of 25,000 people, and second in size and importance only to previously captured Tacloban several miles northward, was seized by the 24th Army Infantry Division against only light Japanese opposition. The city lies two and one-half miles inland from Leyte's east coast where the northern half of the American sphere of control.

The city fell in a matter of a few hours after the hard-charging Americans launched their initial attack on its outer defenses.

Less than a battalion of American troops accomplished initial occupation of the strategic junction.

The Americans now hold three major population centers on Leyte. Tacloban and Dulag, north and south respectively, of Palo, fell to the Americans with little opposition. Seizure of Palo resulted in the consolidation of the American beachheads in the northern and eastern sectors of Leyte and left no doubt that United States forces of liberation have a permanent foothold in the Philippines.

Palo has roads leading in all directions from the city and should help to solve the problem of keeping supplies within reach of rapidly advancing American forward units.

WESTERN FRONT OPERATIONS NOT MAJOR OFFENSIVE, SAYS EISENHOWER

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force—Allied operations on the western front do not yet represent anything in the nature of a co-ordinated major offensive, a spokesman for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today. Present operations involve "right and left hooks" to keep the Germans off balance but no real breakthrough of the Siegfried line will have been achieved until Allied troops are over the Rhine, the spokesman said. He warned of slow progress between Aachen and Cologne due to natural barriers.

WAR FUND DRIVE IS NOW UNDERWAY HERE

Workers Eagerly Seek To Raise Quota of $48,000 Set For District

THE NEED IS URGENT

The drive being conducted in the Bristol Area for funds is now underway and within the next few days it is expected that the efforts to raise the quota of $48,000 will increase.

The need for finances by the National War Fund is greater than ever this year. More young Americans are in the services. More are abroad. These men and women need more than food and a place to sleep to enable them to withstand the hardships, the loneliness, and the horrors of war.

The things which they receive through the U.S.O., United Seamen's Service, and War Prisoners' Aid are things which help sustain them. . . things which let them know that the people of this country are in there with them. Things which tell them that they do not fight alone.

The need for aid among our Allies is pressing. . . acute. This is going to be a fatal year for thousands who have fought for us. . . if we do not help them. We can't let them down now.

In addition, the need here at home in our own communities has been increased by war. This year, the funds collected must do more than ever.

Every possible bit of weight that can be put behind the campaign this year must be put behind it. Urgency must be made aware of the people of the need by every possible device. Every advertising message that is seen—that is heard—will lend impetus to the campaign.

STOCKHAM HIGHLY HONORED BY SCOUTS

Presented With Silver Antelope Award for His Work In Behalf of Scouts

MEETING IN PHILA.

Hon. Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville, was given the highest honor for distinguished service to boyhood within the jurisdiction of Region Three of the Boy Scouts of America when he was presented with the Silver Antelope award on Friday by Walter W. Head, president of the Boy Scouts of America, at the Regional meeting held at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia.

Mr. Stockham, who is a member of the Bucks County Council executive board and is the Regional Commander of Seascouting in Region Three, was one of a group of distinguished men in the Region to receive this award. Another recipient was Justice Owen J. Roberts of the Supreme Court, who is an active Scouter in the Chester County Council. In the absence of Justice Roberts, Mrs. Roberts accepted the medal on behalf of the Justice. It was announced by Mr. Head that Justice Roberts had accepted a position on the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America to take the place of General Theodore Roosevelt, who recently died in France and who, up to the time of his death, had been an active scouter.

The meeting Friday was attended by a representative group of the Bucks County Council headed by the president, Hon. Hiram H. Keller of Doylestown. Other delegates were: the Rev. A. B. Davidson, Doylestown, vice-president; Rev. C. G. Pollock, Morrisville; William Burgess, Jr., Morrisville, scout commissioner; Lloyd S. Bucher, South Langhorne, district commissioner; Edward F. Mills, Doylestown, acting district commissioner; William Fryckberg, St. Francis School, Edgington; Mrs. Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville; and Raymond W. Hoxworth, scout executive.

The theme of the meeting was "Trained Leaders Are Essential To Good Scouting." Ross L. Leffler, of Pittsburgh, presided, and presented the plan of action for organization and extension was made by Andrew Benson, scout executive of Pittsburgh. The plan for training was presented by A. C. Sorenson, scout executive of the Valley Forge council. At the dinner meeting, Walter W. Wyland, of the National Council, urged the men of scouting to give more opportunity of the scout program to more boys than at any time in the past. He brought out the fact that at the present time there are over 1,750,000 men and boys in the Boy Scouts of America. The meeting was opened with an invocation by Rev. John G. Fallon, director of Catholic Youth Association of Philadelphia. The dinner invocation was by the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, D. "CLEAR EVERYTHING WITH SIDNEY"

ENDS AND MEANS
(Doylestown Intelligencer)

As has been pointed out, New Dealers prefer to insist that the Hillman PAC program is a voluntary humanitarian and educational project, completely in harmony with all laws.

When that position becomes untenable in the face of the fact that the Federal Statutes obviously intended to limit the amount, methods of raising, and use of campaign funds, the New Dealers may then attempt to hold that Hillman is circumventing the law by use of loopholes.

Ousted from this second line by the embarrassment of the comparison of what is being done with what is prohibited, these New Deal spokesmen wage a last-ditch defense from a still further position.

This consists essentially of the contention that, whether the PAC activities are legal or not, the end justifies the means.

It is not to be expected that this philosophy will be set forth publicly and officially by Democratic campaigners.

Expressing the idea would be at once confession that the program actually is illegal, also a virtual admission that various New Dealers, President Roosevelt, the big-city political bosses and Sidney Hillman have joined hands in what is virtually a political conspiracy to by-pass the election laws.

But the attempt is being made to get the idea across by implication instead of direct words.

The impression is conveyed by over-emphasis on three points: first, the alleged "voluntary" nature of PAC contributions; second, the small amount of the individual contributions; and third, alleged parallels between the PAC pressure tactics and methods attributed to Republicans in the past.

This of course involves contradictions and the disregard of known facts.

Turning again to the Philadelphia Record, which is one of the most ardent protagonists of Hillman, that newspaper said editorially on October 2:

"When Republican leaders condemn the Political Action Committee for soliciting $1 from union members for political purposes they are condemning the PAC for adopting exactly the same method of collecting political funds which Republicans have used for years."

Even if this statement were literally true, it does not place in a happy light President Roosevelt, whom it describes as condoning and taking advantage of political practices he has roundly condemned in the past.

But the various elements of the statement are incorrect.

First, Republican leaders have not, as the Record states, condemned PAC "for soliciting $1 each from union members." On the contrary, it is not the "soliciting" but the blackjacking of contributions—the contemplated creation by pressure methods of a gigantic slush fund expressly prohibited by Federal statute—that the Republicans are criticizing. Many Democrats join in this condemnation.

Second, it is preposterously erroneous to state that the PAC is "adopting exactly the same method" as the Republican Party is accused of having used in the past.

Even the wildest of New Deal critics do not claim that the Republican Party ever contemplated blackjacking millions of dollars from the rank and file members

BENSALEM P. T. A. MEETS IN INTERESTING SESSION

Purchase of A Recreation Field Is Urged Upon The Members

PROGRAM FEATURES

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Oct. 23—Seventy-five Bensalem Parent-Teacher Association members enjoyed an interesting evening on Thursday.

John Kidd, of this year's senior class, who led the group in singing was named by Philip G. Mack, president, or official song leader for the ensuing year.

Results of the membership drive and contest by the pupils of Bensalem were definitely good. Out of a total enrollment of 217, Edward Cragg solicited 52 members, thus winning the prize which Mr. Mack had offered. More new members are desired, 300 being the goal.

Miss Green's class won the monthly award for parent attendance.

C. Burnley White reported that the Youth Center at King Hall, Andalusia, which was inaugurated by Cornwells P. T. A. last year is now self-supporting. About 250 young people are enjoying the privileges.

Mrs. Roscoe Perkins and delegates, Mrs. Edwin M. Lathrop and Mrs. John Diamond, gave enthusiastic reports of the convention of the Parents and Teachers' Congress recently held in Philadelphia. Attention was called to the post-war needs of parent, teacher and child, not only mentally but physically. The necessity of a larger enrollment in colleges was pointed out in view of the anticipated shortage of teachers. In 1932, 10,000 teachers graduated from the colleges in Pennsylvania. In 1943, there were only 3,700. There will be less this year.

Organization of mothers of pre-school age children was advised. They can help and be helped in P. T. A. work. It was pointed out that Pennsylvania ranks 36th of the 48 states in education.

C. Burnley White made a plea for something to be done about the purchase of the present recreation field of the school. He urged the P. T. A. to anticipate what will happen in the post-war set up. If this ground is bought for a building project, Hope was expressed that co-operation of the school board will be forthcoming.

The closing part of the evenings program food for thought. The Rev. Ronald Arnsley Wiley, of the Church of the Redeemer, Andalusia, brought home to the audience, how in most cases, education has become an assessment instead of an investment. "It is necessary for us to begin individually in our own back yard to rectify the mistakes that have been made. Don't try to get all you can get for the least effort, but learn to live with people and give of yourself, thus building a better world, not forgetting the need of spiritual development."

On Nov. 15th, there will be "open house" at the school from one to five p. m. Regular school hours will be observed so that parents may see their children in their regular routine. After 3:15 teachers will be glad to discuss problems with parents. All visitors are requested to register in their child's home room. There will be no evening P. T. A. meeting in November.

After adjournment, a treat by Mr. Mack was served in the cafeteria.

McCay-Heller Wedding Is Solemnized Locally

At a ceremony in Bristol Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon at the hour of two, Miss Florence E. Heller, a member of the class of 1944, Abington Hospital School of Nurses, became the wife of Mr. George McCay, of Bath street.

The Rev. W. E. Preston Haas, pastor of the church, officiated; and the bride's sister and a brother of the groom, Mr. Robert McCay, were attendants.

The couple then left for Allentown to pay a visit at the home of relatives of the bride.

WHAT OUR BOYS ARE DOING TO WIN THE WAR

A NINTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND UNIT, FRANCE

Oct. 23—Private First Class Albert Nij, a husband of Mary Nepa, 33s Lincoln avenue, Bristol, Pa., is now advancing through France with a Ninth Air Force Service Command unit servicing the fighters and bombers of the Ninth Air Force which are blasting a path toward Germany for our victorious armies.

By now he has had a wonderful opportunity to see practically all of France from the hedgerows of Normandy to the dusty battlefields of the last war. Riding in speeding trucks over bumpy roads pitted with shell holes, he has been able to feel the joy of the French people who line the roads all day just to flash the V-sign to the Allied armies rushing supplies up to the vanishing front.

Hundreds of pretty girls have thrown kisses at him as much as to say, "Thank God you are here. Vive L'Amerique!" Little French children have run up to him and held his hand trying to communicate in some way their great joy that the Americans have come—with their guns and liberation.

He has probably taken one little taste of Calvados, and sworn off for life. Undoubtedly he's been wanting to send some French perfume back to the folks at home, but the towns are off-limits and purchases of most articles are temporarily taboo. He regrets that he didn't study French at school, but now can parlez-vous enough to get his laundry, buy a fresh egg, ask the price and say "thank you." He joins with thousands of other American G. I.'s in the hope that never again will beautiful France become the battleground of a world at war.

Pfc. Nepa entered service in September, 1942.

FORMOSA'S IMPORTANCE

The blazing American attacks which leveled Formosa are steps in the campaign to win back the Philippines. These smashing blows brought the war very close to Japan, for the island is perhaps the most important of all Japanese bases.

It is reported in some sources that Formosa was even more heavily fortified than the Japanese home islands. It was from the bases in Formosa that the Japs launched their attack on the Philippines.

The pounding of Formosa has neutralized the major Japanese supply base and destroyed much Jap shipping and many airplanes. With Formosa lost to the enemy as an effective supply base, invasion of the Philippines was made much easier.

Each attack in this vital area—on Formosa, on Luzon, or anywhere else in the area of the Philippines—means that the day is that much closer when General MacArthur's troops will complete their occupation of the Philippines.

DESTROYING WEALTH

In considering the conscienceless qualities of the Japs and Germans in pursuing methods of destruction in wartime, it is a salutary practice to consider the presence of a spirit of destructiveness in the land of the free in peacetime as well as war-time.

G. H. Collingwood, forester of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association, says that incendiarism is the principal cause of forest fires in the United States, although carelessness of smokers and campers runs a close second.

Incendiarism has increased 7 per cent since 1939, he says. In some areas forests have been burned out deliberately to provide pasture land or because of the luxuriant berry growth which follows. Frequently, he says, they have been ignited with the intention of burning out a limited area, but the fires spread. Other causes of incendiarism listed are spite, sabotage and "the fun of watching fires burn."

The effect of these causes of fire is appalling when it is considered that fire destroys more trees a year than the national replanting program and natural reproduction can replace. Fires, Mr. Collingwood says, may change the character of the soil so the ground no longer can support the type of tree growth it originally would produce.

Each year, forest fires destroy 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 acres of timberland. The annual harvest of lumber is approximately 12,000,000,000 cubic feet, and each year an additional 2,000,000,000 cubic feet are destroyed by fire and other agencies—one-sixth of the total yearly harvest.

It is strange that Americans either deliberately or carelessly should engage in such wholesale destruction of the national wealth. A stepped-up educational program to impress upon everyone the damaging effects of fire is seriously needed.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Nov. 22, 1883. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

As a result of the heavy fog yesterday morning a large three-masted schooner got on the bar opposite Bristol. The steamboats "Edwin Fordrest" and "Silver Star" were also greatly delayed in making their trips.

The largest collection for home missions ever taken in the Bristol Presbyterian Church was taken up last Sunday morning. One hundred and eight dollars were put into the contribution basket.

Zephaniah Force and wife, living near Yardley, celebrated their golden wedding on the 14th instant.

Daniel McCafferty has commenced building a dwelling house on Washington street, near Pond.

The new bank building at Langhorne is completed, and is now opened for business.

Newtown is to have a new hall.

A meeting to consider the prospect of extending the telephone line from Bristol to Newtown, was held at Langhorne on Monday last, and committees appointed to canvass Newtown, Langhorne, Hulmeville, Newportville and Bristol and report the number of books which can be sold at a meeting in Newtown on next Monday. The following are the names of the persons on the committee: Newtown—William Wynkoop, I. W. Merrick, Cyrus Hilborn, Henry A. Smith, Paul Baker, Watson P. Church, George A. Jenks, Esq., J. Pemberton Hutchinson and J. Taylor Briggs, Langhorne—H. W. Watson, Esq., John E. Parry and Charles H. Webster, Hulmeville—John Johnson, Jesse G. Webster and John Perry, Newportville—William R. Vandegrift, Isaac C. Fetter and George W. Boileau, Bristol—Robert Rogers, B. Frank Gilchrist, Esq., Lewis A. Horget and Charles E. Scott.

W. Watts Rose of Newportville was stabbed in the arm at Philadelphia last Sunday morning. Rose was assisting a street car conductor to collect a fare from a belligerent passenger and when he got off the car was followed and assaulted.

Complaints are made that the freight trains, notwithstanding the rules of the company and the sign boards erected at each street, continue to block up the crossings so that pedestrians are compelled to wait from 10 to 20 minutes. If the railroad company is powerless to enforce obedience to their own rules, council might give them a little auxiliary aid.

A. P. Burbank, the noted humorist, will be at the Baptist Church on Friday, the 30th instant.

(Following items culled from Bucks County Gazette, issue of Nov. 29, 1883.)

Water will be drawn from the canal on December 10th.

The Trenton authorities now use the ball and chain for tramps and set them at work on the streets.

A horse went through a broken plank in the hollow bridge last Friday. The other creek bridge is also in poor condition. The Turnpike Company should see that their property is in safe condition.

A number of farmers near Bristol are subject to the annoyance of persons entering upon their premises and cutting trees for the holidays without permission being granted. Last year many cedars and pines were carried off, and this year several farmers have determined to put a stop, if possible, to the practice as far as their own property is concerned.

Complaints are made that the freight trains, notwithstanding the rules of the company and the sign boards erected at each street, continue to block up the crossings so that pedestrians are compelled to wait from 10 to 20 minutes. If the railroad company is powerless to enforce obedience to their own rules, council might give them a little auxiliary aid.

A. P. Burbank, the noted humorist, will be at the Baptist Church on Friday, the 30th instant.

Work will be commenced on the bridge over the canal at Jefferson avenue this winter.

HULMEVILLE

Two Halloween parties were conducted in Grace Episcopal Church parish house during the past few days. The Women's Auxiliary members gathered on Thursday evening, 25 participating in a program of games, and a feast. Costumes prizes were awarded. Refreshments of gingerbread, apple sauce, cookies and candy were served in an attractive setting. The primary children, taught by Miss Gordon and approximately 25, enjoyed a party Saturday afternoon. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Stanley Buckman and Miss Margaret Perry. After games and awarding of prizes, ice cream, pretzels, lolly-pops and cookies were served.

Fresh and processed fruits and vegetables were displayed at the Harvest Home service in Neshaminy Methodist Church yesterday.

NEW YORK (INS)—New York draft boards are to be drafted, to aid in the sale of war bonds in the Sixth War Loan drive, according to F. W. Gehle, state chairman of the War Finance Committee. During the Fifth War Loan more than 260 of the city's 280 local boards sent letters to families of service men urging the purchase of bonds.

WHEN the curtain of censorship lifts—many names of SUN SHIP tankers will be on the war roll of honor. Then the story can be told completely. The role the tankers played for victory will thrill a grateful people.

Here is one story of a gallant tanker and the part she played in readying the invasion of Normandy... the invasion of Marseille... the liberation of Paris. Censorship makes her nameless—but this ship's name will go down in History.

This tanker set an unsurpassed fuel-running record. In the 262 days preceding the liberation of Paris she made eight round trips, totalling 56,000 miles, from Marcus Hook to her war port in England. Powered with SUN Diesel Doxford engines—she travelled fast. She needed no convoy. She carried a total of 44,202,208 gallons of high-octane gasoline and Navy fuel oil—the gasoline and oil that powered the planes... landing barges... ships

... tanks... jeeps... mobile guns and equipment that struck with force—with fury—on D-Day, June 6, 1944—and on to the spectacular victories in France that startled the world. Each round trip took but 32 3/4 days instead of the usual 49 days. She loaded—crossed—unloaded—returned—in this 32 3/4-day round-trip record of carrying fuel for the fight.

This ship symbolizes the staunchly-built, staunch-hearted all-welded tankers that SUN SHIP has designed and launched for our war effort. These tankers are true... sleek... souled with quality. Men who know ships take off their hats in sincere tribute as each tanker receives her God-speed and slides down the ways at SUN SHIP in Chester. These all-welded tankers have done much to bring victory nearer. These tankers and their crews gallantly are carving their niche in History. They will continue to serve greatly in time of peace.

Ceramics' Is Subject of Miss Weder At Perkasio

PERKASIE, Oct. 23—Perkasie women's club held its first meeting the season on Thursday in Fraternity Temple. The program was presented by Miss Julia Weder, who spoke on "Ceramics."

Miss Weder, who for the past four years has made this her hobby, speaking before approximately 65 women, said the Indians were the first to make pottery in this country, although the Chinese are known to have made fine glazed pieces centuries before.

The guest speaker described the operation of the potter's wheel and the method of applying the fine glazes. Ceramic objects illustrating Miss Weder's talk were on display. She also showed some pieces of sculpture she had made. Sculpturing, she told the women, is her specialty, but at present she is engaged in making ceramic jewelry. She gave a demonstration of the steps taken in the making of a ceramic pin in the form of a rose.

Miss Weder has her own electric kiln. Objects are left in the kiln for eight hours until they reach a temperature of 1900 degrees. Glazed pieces, it was explained, require no firing.

The business session was in charge of the new president, Mrs. Clyde T. Moyer, Sellersville, and during the afternoon several piano solos were rendered by John Moeve, a Sell-Perk High School student.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Richard R. Gay
Pastor
Hulmeville Methodist Church of Bristol

Our Father, we thank Thee for another day. We are grateful for the challenges which come to us in our daily living. Challenges which require the utmost of Christian courage and devotion. Help us we pray Thee to seize our opportunities for service with eagerness that Thy Will might be done through us. O Lord, help us to develop sympathetic hearts and understanding minds that no one will pass by us with broken heart or twisted life without having received encouragement from us. Teach us O God, the secret of a life which is centered upon Thee that we might be steady and sure in days of confusion. Help us to see the basis for victorious living as it is revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord. Our prayer we ask O Lord in the Spirit of Christ. Amen.

We appreciate all your help and understanding when Long Distance lines are crowded.

We hope you will keep right on saying a cheery "O. K." when the operator asks you to limit your call to 5 minutes.

BRISTOL HIGH ELEV EN WINS FOURTH STRAIGHT GRIDIR ON VICTORY WHEN BENSALAM I S DEFEATED IN RAIN

Bristol High won its fourth straight gridiron victory Saturday afternoon, defeating Bensalem High, 19-0, on a rain-soaked Bristol field. The game was played despite the fact that it was raining from start to finish.

The weather made the handling of the pigskin very difficult, there being eight fumbles in the game. Bristol had three fumbles and recovered them all while Bensalem fumbled five times and recovered none.

The passing attack of both teams was hampered because of the difficulty in the throwing of the ball.

But the mud-coated field did not stop the Bunnies from crossing the Bensalem goal-line on three occasions and did not prevent Joe McCarty from adding another point after touchdown to his record.

The Stackhouse coached boys scored their initial six-pointer in the first period. After the kick-off, Bensalem failed to gain and so Trapp, booted to the Bristol 40, Oriola made a first down to carry the ball to the visitors' 35. Keyes lateraled to Faveroso for a touch-down but the play was recalled, the officials claiming that Keyes was down. Bristol then drove through the Owls' line for a first down on the 24. McDevitt whipped a pass to Florelli who behind the line blocked Faveroso for a touch-down.

It wasn't until the fourth period that the Bunnies were able to score again. This time it was Joe McDevitt who broke loose on an off-tackle play and ran 50 yards to score. He added the extra point try.

Shortly after this, the Bristol line pushed over another score. On the kick-off, Keyes kicked into the end zone and the ball was brought out to the 20. Trapp attempted to kick but the ball was partially blocked and recovered by Bristol on the 25. On the first play, Keyes lateraled to Leo Florelli who rushed the goal-line behind wonderful interference to make the final score 19-0.

The Owl made a brilliant showing in the latter half of the first and the beginning of the second quarter. Their line held up wonderfully to prevent a Bristol score. It started after Florelli's touch-down. An exchange of punts took place with Oriola running back one for 25 yards, to his own 46. On two punts, Bristol had a first down and the Bunnies followed this with two consecutive first downs to carry the pigskin to the Bensalem 5 as the quarter ended.

A pass, McDevitt to Oriola, placed the ball on the 1-yard line but the Bensalem line braced and Bristol lost the ball on downs. Trapp kicking out to the 30. On the first play, a pass was intercepted by Hansen but the Owls also tried a pass which was intercepted by Faveroso for Bristol. By pounding the line, Bristol carried the ball to the Bensalem 10 and here again the invaders held for downs.

Trapp attempted to kick out of danger but the ball was blocked and Keyes grabbed it on the one-yard line. But in four tries, Bristol could not make the necessary yard for a score and Bensalem kicked out to its twenty. Bristol made a first down on the Bensalem five but the Owls were determined and again held for downs.

It was the first Lower Bucks County League game this season and the Bunnies as the result are now resting in first place.

We poured plasma into him—quart after quart—it was all that had any hope of keeping him alive. I can imagine how we'd have felt if we'd had to stop the plasma from running short of supplies, and then seen him die before us."

People in the Falls and Tullytown sections reported the thefts, and when it was learned Richardson was showing his friend with gifts, suspicion was directed in his direction.

Trooper Andrew J. Kutney, of the South Langhorne barracks of the State Police, went to the King Farms, and Richardson is said to have admitted robbing the places. He was placed under arrest. Given a hearing before Justice of the Peace John Melvin, Richardson was held without bail on a charge of burglary.

No charge has been preferred against the girl to whom Richardson is alleged to have given the loot.

of organization, union or otherwise; or that it ever entrusted the spending of a gigantic slush-fund on its behalf to an independent and rival political organization; or that it ever turned over the reins of authority and the handling of its funds to a single man not even actively a member of the Party.

Use of such specious reasoning in trying to justify a program that seriously endangers the integrity of the White House, the freedom of our elections, and the future of the two-party system, is merely further proof of the depths to which the New Deal has sunk in the mire of corrupt politics.

It is confirmation of the Republican contention that the idealists of the New Deal have sold out to the big-city bosses in a deal whereby a protégé of the ill-fated Prendergast political machine was nominated for Vice-President.

It is a philosophy which puts the finishing touches on the picture of the Democratic Party's once proud standards trailing in the dust—a picture deftly outlined recently by Democratic Chairman Hannegan when he protested that the Democratic Party has been giving its job to "statesmen" rather than party workers, and that the "hatch act" was hampering him in obtaining contributions.
